

MARCH 10, 2014

MA. KIRSTEN ANN RAELEEN C. LOTERTE

When I went to Singapore two months from now, I already have two agencies and paid them but none of them gave me a successful job. But then thanks be to God and to a friend who referred me to ESTEEM AGENCY and a miracle happened. They gave me an interview and got selected by the employer. Last Friday, March 7, 2014 and now I am leaving to Malaysia to wait for my permit to work here in Singapore. They are very fast in processing the applications and a reliable agency as well. I will recommend this agency to all aspiring nurses who wish to work here and wants to have great opportunity as a nurse. More power to ESTEEM AGENCY and may God bless you always and thank you for helping nurses to achieve their dreams in life. I am very grateful that I have^{had} referred to you and I know that I am in good hands. Thank you so much!
